

INDUSTRY

MANUFACTURING

Web Work for Education provides maintenance departments in the education sector with a custom tailored CMMS solution to meet their demanding, and unique needs.

Web Work for education is being utilized by maintenance departments in K12, universities and colleges across North America. Web Work is a proven solution with the support and experience of engineers who have a tremendous amount of knowledge about the unique needs of the education sector.

Web Work for Education provides:

- » Fully integrated browser based software
- » Remote campus wireless kiosk & request systems
- » Fully browser based interfaces across multiple platforms
- » Government reporting packages and interfaces
- » User defined screens and reports
- » Un-equalled security & data separation
- » On-Line (hosted) or On-Site (installed)

Web Work for education is the most widely used complete CMMS for education in North America. Thousands of users each day rely on Web Work to manage and control Projects, Labor, Inventory, and Capital Assets.

Web Work was the world's first true web based maintenance system for the education sector. With over 25 years experience focused on the needs of the education maintenance manager, no other company can provide as much experience, support, or Return On your Investment.

Fully Integrated

Web Work is a fully integrated, scalable, complete CMMS solution customized to your specific needs.

Un-matched Support

Backed by the worlds most experienced engineers, for over 25 years education maintenance managers have relied on TMSS for superior assistance & support.

Remote Access

From any location anywhere, anytime, managers and workers alike have access to their maintenance system through any remote Palm, Windows Mobile, or Blackberry (PDA) device.

Guaranteed Success

With Web Work you are guaranteed a successful implementation and ROI by a CMMS developer/supplier who's sole focus is on your specific needs.